

24th-25th November 2000, Thessaloniki, Greece

The Macedonian Press Centre held its 6th Interbalkan Conference at the I. Vellidis congress centre in Thessaloniki from 24th - 25th November 2000. The conference was entitled "New technologies in Mass Media for Interbalkan Co-operation" and reflected the spirit of INWEB in its desire to enhance relationships and co-operation amongst Balkan countries, to achieve socio-economic development and stability in the region as a whole. Detailed information may be found under

<http://www.mpa.gr/specials/conference/english.htm>