

12th-14th November 2010, Rabat, Morocco

The Aristotle University of Thessaloniki/UNESCO Chair INWEB is a partner in this TEMPUS project, which aims to develop and adapt study programmes and training on water resources in Maghreb, establish regional and national training water centres in Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia, develop short training courses on water resources and water technologies based on new regional water policies and produce guidelines and recommendations for developing training for water professionals in Maghreb. The kick-off meeting was held in Rabat, Morocco from 12th-14<sup>t</sup>
h

November 2010 and attended by UNESCO Chair's General Secretary, Dr. Ch. Skoulikaris.