One cause of potential conflicts in water resources management is the lack of communication between scientists and experts on the one-hand and stakeholders and water managers on the other. In order to effectively resolve this issue and to formulate action programmes, this workshop (attended by 29 participants) aimed to incorporate the experience and expertise of the HELP initiative with that of the UNESCO ISARM and UNESCO ROSTE teams.

Read more ...

Links:

- http://www.unesco.org/venice
- http://www.unesco.org/water/ihp/help
- http://www.unesco.org/water/ihp