

14th-15th November 2009, Brussels, Belgium

The university network FEMISE's annual conference gathers members' institutes and affiliates from the North and South of the Mediterranean to address and exchange views on issues related to the EU-Med Partnership and Neighbourhood policies and their effects on the economic and social aspects of the Mediterranean Partners countries. The conference serves also as a platform for networking among members of the association and with other distinguished invitees.

<http://www.femise.org>